

ART SAFARI

Photoshop for Artists with Shelly Perkins

Art Safari Studio, Woodbridge

Friday 12th, Saturday 13th & Sunday 14th April 2019

A fun and inspiring three day Art Safari workshop to give you a good basis and understanding of Photoshop and help develop confidence in using the program for your own artwork.

Wildlife and landscape artist Shelly Perkins is keen to share her enthusiasm for this versatile computer programme so you can work on your own original artworks to create prints and multiples.

Shelly uses Photoshop to create her own beautiful digital artworks. She combines traditional line drawings and paintings with digital techniques creating highly detailed, multi-layered collages.

Download the programme and bring a laptop with you (we'll send a link).

During the three days we spend time learning, practising and then refreshing our knowledge of the diverse tools available in Photoshop, getting to know the basic tools well and how to progress into others. The instruction will be broken up by a series of set tasks to consolidate understanding of the tools and build a strong foundation to the program. Shelly will give demos on scanning and stitching as well as one to one tuition as you work up our own images.

There will be time for group discussions and time to show the progress of our own work.

In the evenings we can gather in a local restaurant or pub for a convivial Art Safari evening (dinner not included).

£285 for all three days, including lunches & refreshments
