

ART SAFARI

Drawing for the terrified

With artist Claudia Myatt
Friday 05 April 2019 in Woodbridge

Your artist tutor Claudia Myatt enjoys teaching, she believes that drawing and painting is for everyone, not just for those who have 'talent' - whatever that is. Drawing and painting techniques can be taught - the language of line is a universal way of connecting and communicating. It's very enjoyable to do and is very good for you! Claudia will guide you through observational skills, before settling into an absorbing day which will include demonstrations, sketching exercises and some one-to-one tuition time.

Techniques we'll cover include:

- Connecting hand and eye – how to see everything as interconnecting shapes
- Switching off your 3D vision and getting past the interfering brain
- Measured drawing, getting proportions right
- How to cheat at perspective and a good look at the horizon
- Sketching for fun – working fast, working slow
- The importance of making mistakes

These workshops take place in Art Safari's riverside studio, where there is a wealth of material to be seen from the balcony and around the quayside. To help you prepare we provide a short list of suggested art materials to bring with you.

A light lunch and refreshments are provided.
