How to grow a sketchbook

With artist Claudia Myatt

Saturday 14 September 2019 in Woodbridge

Empty sketchbooks are a big source of guilt for developing artists - the empty page challenges you, daring you to mess it up. But keeping a sketchbook is not only a source of great joy, it's the most useful thing you can do to improve your artist's 'eye'. This day can be taken on its own or as a follow on from 'Line and Wash'.

We'll look at:

- how to choose materials that suit you and your style
- how to use prompts and themes that inspire you to do something every day
- getting over the fear of sketching from life
- basic drawing techniques to make choosing a subject less bewildering
- how to fill a sketchbook and turn it into a glorious, messy, diary of your life or travels

Suitable for beginners or for any artist with the guilty secret of half-filled sketchbooks and good intentions

These workshops take place in Art Safari's riverside studio, where there is a wealth of material to be seen from the balcony and around the quayside. A light lunch and refreshments are provided.

Cost: £70, including lunch and refreshments

Venue: Art Safari Studio, The Harbourmasters Office, Woodbridge, Suffolk IP12 1BW

Places must be pre-booked on 01394 382235
